GOOD RACING AT HARLEM.

The track at Harlem is improving slowly. Beneath a dry and rough surface there is a lot of moisture. Another day of sunshine may put it in nearly first-class order. It is, however, quite likely that this afternoon horses drawing inside positions will be placed at disadvantages. There was a fair attendance and good racing.

In the first race Panout displayed great speed and a lamentable lack of stamina. He lost the rest of the field in the run along the back stretch, came back a little on the turn, and stopped almost to a walk in the home stretch. Tenole caught him at the furlong pole. Gray thought he had the race won. So did the spectators. In front of the grand stand Martin brought up Little Singer under a drive. Gray was caught napping, and Little Singer beat the favorite home.

Master Martin also rode the winner of the second race, Judge Wilcox. Nora Ives and he showed the way for three furlongs. Then The Dragoon and Alice B moved up, and a drive between four began. Nora Ives retired and the other three fought out the finish, Alice B getting second place. Caywood declared that Alice B would have won easily had she not been green at the post.

"She broke all right," said the boy, "but wanted to trot away. When I got her running, she closed a lot of ground. She is a good filly and can run around that kind."

Tit for Tat captured the third race by a brush through the stretch. The field ran in two divisions for half a mile. Neutral, Sangamon and Hi Daddy being the leaders. Coming into the stretch Neutral took command. Gray called on Tit for Tat after straightening out and she won easily.

By carrying 92 pounds and running a mile in 1:46 1/2 Globe II. won the fourth race. It was a poor field. Swordsman made the winner extend himself at the finish. Inuendo, strongly played, gave up when the struggle began.

Three-quarters of a mile in 1:16 enabled Time-maker to handily win the fifth race, while The Manxman outfooted Boanerges—the favorite—for the place. Boanerges was lapped on Time-maker half way around the turn. Then he put his ears down and dropped to fourth, losing three open lengths. He began running again in the stretch, but did not recover half what he had lost in a few strides. He is a bad horse to back.

Warren Point was many pounds the best horse in the last race. He started in the worst of the going, was always a contender and came away when Necedah made a move for the lead, rounding into the stretch. Necedah tired chasing him and was beaten out by Howitzer, who ran strongly the last quarter.

BANNOCKBURN'S GOOD WORK.

Bannockburn will start for St. Louis this morning and land there tonight. He will run in the Derby at the Fair Grounds tomorrow. Lieutenant McGuigan gave him a Derby trial yesterday morning and the move was so satisfactory that the trip to St. Louis was promptly arranged. With 108 pounds up and the stable boy Weaver in the saddle the colt worked a mile and a half in 2:40. Two horses were run at him in the first mile and a quarter, which was run in 2:12 1/2. After the second horse pulled up Bannockburn galloped another quarter in 27 1/2. Speaking of the work and prospective racing of the colt Lieutenant McGuigan said: "He broke at the seven-eighth post and pulled up at the three-eighths. He was tired when he pulled up, but cooled out so nicely that I made up my mind to ship him. The stake down there will be worth about $7,000 to the winner, the second will get $1,000, the third $500 and the fourth will save his stake. Now I don't expect Bannockburn to be so good as he will a week from next Saturday—if nothing goes wrong with him—but, with only 102 pounds to carry, he will be good enough to try for some part of that money. He will have to carry 122 pounds in the American Derby and will need work to key him up for the task. There is no work equal to racing, so I am going to work him in what will probably be a hard race, bring him back and try to have him on edge when the gates open at Washington Park. If he wins at St. Louis he will have to take up a penalty of five pounds in the American Derby. I hope he will earn the penalty." At Harlem in the afternoon Charley Thorpe was engaged to ride him. Thorpe had arrived from Whiting, Ia., in the morning, and weighed 117 pounds with his clothes on. He promised to be able to do 102 Saturday afternoon. He will start for St. Louis tonight.

Warrenton was worked a mile and a quarter early yesterday at Harlem. He had stake weight up and covered the distance in 2:20. It was an excellent performance considering the condition of the track and the fact that the colt went a long route.

Jockey Clawson has gone east to ride Imp in the Suburban. He started on the Lake Shore limited at 5:30 last night and will arrive in New York this evening at 6:30. He will start back Saturday night or Sunday morning and be here to ride Monday afternoon.

W. H. Timmons has gone east. His horses have been transferred to the stable of John Delong. The conditions of the transfer have not been made public. Varying reports say the horses were purchased by Delong for from $2,000 down to $1,000. Timmons priced the horses last week to J. E. Cushing at $2,000.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

PLAUDIT'S NEW RIDER.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 16.—Fred Littlefield left for St. Louis tonight to ride Plaudit in the Derby.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The purse that Chenille won at Detroit June 10 at five and a half furlongs from Forfeit and Irksome, was protested, and the association still holds the money. The claim is set up that Chenille is owned by Jockey John Murphy, the former owner of Ardath. Murphy is an outlaw. Chenille is still at the track, but will not be allowed to start.

Calphurnia, the property of Clay & Woodford, died a few days ago at Runnymede Stud from the effects of foaling. She was by Julius—The Test, by Sacharometer—Lady Abbess, by Surplice. She was a very good producer, having thrown Mabel Glenn, Dungarven, Humidity, Catalpa and Elmer.

Subscriber, Chicago, Ill.—Bettors on Blaze Face at opening odds in the St. Louis race of June 3 are entitled—if odds were those of DAILY RACING FORM—to 15 to 1. The 3 to 1 quoted in DAILY RACING FORM was incorrect. The opening odds should have been 15 to 1.

Mirthful's excellent performance in the Brookdale Handicap insures his being sent to compete for American Derby honors. Had he failed to show well in the Brookdale it is probable that he would have been kept at home.

Veterinary Surgeon Queen, who has Heliobas in charge, thinks the colt will pull through his sickness all right and be able to stand shipment to Chicago within ten days.

Hardy Campbell, the well-known eastern trainer, is dangerously sick with pneumonia.

Winner—Br. c, by Darebin—Miss Clay. Start fair. Won easily. Mr. Clay was lucky. He is improving. Lepida had clear sailing and was well ridden. She has speed but no class. Cormorant ran his race at the post. He is very fractious and got bad handling. Can do better. Dr. Parker had no chance as managed. He lost a lot of ground at the start. Pride was also away slowly. Wants a route and a strong jockey. Is only ordinary. False Ban showed speed and was eased last quarter. Strangest was hardly bridled and the start settled his chance.

Scratched—Holden, 100; Tyrba, 100.

Overweights—Mr. Clay, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Logic—La Sylphide. Start fair. Won in a gallop. Semper Ego was easily the best to-day and is in grand form. Howard Mann ran a surprisingly improved race. He got away badly and closed strong at end. Watch him. He will do especially well in mud. Isidor as a pacemaker was at a disadvantage. He finished with extreme gameness and is also above the average. He should improve. Tragedian was short and made a fast move on the stretch turn. Watch him. He is good. Merlin is of no account in this company. He got away badly. Atlantis showed a fine burst of speed at the half, but stepped in the stretch. Watch him among his kind. Ben Eder sulked but showed speed.

Time, 13, 24, 36 1/2, 48 1/2, 1:02, 1:15.

Winner—B. c, by His Highness—Carrie W. Start good. Won cleverly. Beraud was the best, lucky, and perfectly handled. He was driving hard at the eighth pole. Frohsinn was used for a waiting race and was favored by such management. He came with a rush the last quarter. Is very game. Kingdon ran a good race. He showed a lot of speed and hung on gamely. This colt seems to dislike being hurried in short races. Miller cannot stay. He quit badly the last quarter. Croker was outclassed, but ran a fair race and was eased up.

Scratched—Muggins, 115.

Winner—Ch. c, by Knight of Ellerslie—Moss Rose. Start good. Won easily. The best won. The Huguenot shows some of his great brother's quality. He was favored in having a pacemaker, and was lucky too. Previous looked to be a winner at the half, but hung at the end. He possibly made his run too soon. His forte is speed. Latson appeared to have a chance for the first mile and ran a splendid race. The others are of no account in this company.

6482 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. $500 added. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 13, 24 1/2, 36 1/2, 49, 1:02 1/2, 1:15 1/2.

Winner—B. f, by Escher—Sis O'Lee. Start straggling. Won easily. Bonadea was best. She is fast and will improve. Handpress ran an honest race, was lucky and will do well from now on. Lydian closed like a whirlwind at the end. Watch him in mud. Is a sprinter. Auckland was shut off early and took the long route. He was coming fast at the end. Rappannock was also closing at the finish. He favors a route and a strong jockey. Sensational is stale. Helmsdale showed much speed. Probably needs a race or two. Laudeman had no chance at start. Ryan was eased up after showing a lot of speed.

Scratched—Chalmers, 101.

Overweights—Handpress, 2 pounds; Helmsdale, 4.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Sunday's edition of the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune makes the following statement: "Captain J. H. Rees, who presided so capably in the judges' stand at Oakley the recent meeting, was at Latonia yesterday. He is authority for the statement that he has been engaged as presiding judge for the meeting which will be held at Hawthorne, Chicago, this summer. Captain Rees also stated that he has been engaged to fill the position by Barney Schreiber, one of the promoters of the meeting. The meet at Hawthorne will probably follow that of Washington Park. James Caldwell, who handled the flag at Oakley, is slated for the startship at Hawthorne. There is now but little doubt that there will be a meeting at Hawthorne this summer. Ed Corrigan, while here last week, announced that the Hawthorne track would run this summer, and the engagement of Rees and Caldwell is another straw which shows the way the wind is blowing in Chicago turf circles."

Charles T. Patterson has bought of Mrs. E. F. Clay the yearling full sister to Ben Brush. This filly is a brown (a shade darker than Brush), with stripe in her face, while Brush has only a small star. She is, however, strikingly like her great brother in conformation and action. Col. Clay presented the filly when a suckling to his wife, and she was sold as Mrs. Clay's personal property. Mr. Patterson has also bought of Col. W. S. Barnes the chestnut colt Prince of Melbourne, by Bramble—Maid of Balgown, by Hindoo, second dam the great mare Ballet, by Planet. Col. Barnes thinks so highly of this colt that he was anxious for him to bear the name of his farm.—Thoroughbred Record.

Bennington & Gardner's Dinsmore is dangerously sick with an attack of fever and is not expected to live. Nabob, of the same stable, has gone lame and may be unable to race for some time.

Formero and Sink's other horses engaged in stakes at Washington Park are to be shipped from New York for Chicago Sunday.

Edward Fee of Detroit, Mich., is disposing of his entire stable of horses in training and ready to race.

Imp is owned at Chillicothe, O., and Chillicothe is to be illuminated if Imp wins the Suburban.

AN ably written treatise on "Horse Racing, or the Art of Making Money at the Race Track," will be mailed free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe & Co., 720 Consolidated Exchange Building, Chicago. It is illustrated with fifteen art half-tones of Ed Bodoy's celebrated racing studies. It is the most compact bit of horse lore we have ever seen, and gives in a nutshell the gist of a life's experience among the thoroughbreds. Every race-goer will find it highly instructive and very enjoyable reading.

Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second also driving. Beana was much the best. She had to go around her field. Piccola pulled up lame. She was given a queer ride at that. Preliminary died to nothing after showing early speed. Sis Vic is still improving. Salvarse ran a good race.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Komurasaki's improvement since Monday last was something in the way of a revelation, and unexplainable by ordinary means. Great Bend was doing his best. Remp was very fractious at the post. The others were greatly outclassed.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop. The others driving. Mazo's performance was another startling reversal. He came like a flash through the stretch and made the others look like platers. Judge Tarvin was pinned on the rail by The Barrister in the final sixteenth and Everett was unable to use his whip. The race makes The Barrister look like an exploded phenomenon. Judge Tarvin picked up a penalty of 3 pounds for winning his race yesterday.

Martin avoided the early pace with her and never made a move until the three-eighths pole was reached. The filly responded gamely when called upon. Tenole weakened a trifle in the last twenty yards. He ran his race though. Panout was pumped out the first half. He was ready to lie down in the stretch. This fellow has a lot of speed, but no endurance whatever. Gold Corn ran a bad race. Off at first break. Start good. Won driving; the next four were under keen pressure. Judge Wilcox ran a game race. He bore to the inside some in the stretch, but was clear of his field and interfered with no horse. Alice B was the best and performed like a good filly. She was off in the rear division and picked up her field one by one. She is a good looker and is game. Guatemoc was interfered with on the far turn. He finished strong under punishment, and will bear watching. Babe Robertson seems to have staled. She ran a bad race. So did Ann Bell. Nora Ives had speed, but could only last about half a mile.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Lennep outclassed her field. Was never extended. Takanassee looked tucked up and is evidently getting stale. Pommery Sec favors a soft track. Judge Wardell ran a much improved race.

Scratched—Yellow Jacket, 101; Chang, 93.

Overweights—Judge Wardell, 3 pounds; Judge Quigley, 5.

Time, 25, 37, 49.

Winner—B. f. by Long Fish—Marie Reed.
Off at first break to a fair start. Won in a hard drive; second and third also driving. Bridal Tour would have won with an even break. Off poorly, she had to go around her field and swung wide into the stretch. Contravene tired the last hundred yards. Ocie Brooks showed startling improvement. She got up in the last few jumps.

Scratched—Deuce of Hearts, 100.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Coriolanus—Marie Reed.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Belzara got a horrible ride, was pulled up at the start and cut off three times in the race. Was best, and with a good ride would have won. The good track suited Ray H. He fought it out gamely. Jim Flood was hustled the entire route. He saved ground at the home turn. Hazel Green had no speed. Could never get up. Scratched—Stanza, 106; John Conroy, 104.
